M. ALBERT SANTOS-DUMONT

NEW YORK, March 12.—That romance no less than airships has to do with M.
Santos-Dumont's present visit to this country has just become known.

In Paris five years ago the young inventor met Miss Lorraine Spreckels, formerly of San Francisco. The young woman is very handsome, and has many admirers, and M. Santos-Dumont, jointly the latter, was very much in love with her, and she apparently returned his affection.

Miss Spreckels's parents, her mother in particular, opposed her marriage to the famous inventor. It is believed, however, that this opposition will be overcome.

Thurman returned home Monday after a two years' mission to Europe. The girls are in the best of health and spirits, and report as having enjoyed their labors in the missionary field very much. Before returning they visited many of the prominent cities of Europe.

The lectures given in the B. Y. university Thursday by Prof. W. E. Clark of Chicago were well attended and greatly appreciated.

at Colton. Mr. Cragen has accepted the position of station agent for the R. G. W. of that place.

Mr. Elmer Beck left this week for Stockton, where he has accepted a position with the Cyclone Mining company of that place.

Postmaster Lawrence of Spanish Fork was a visitor in this city Monday.

O. M. Mower, Thomas Dallas and William Mendenhall of Springville came over as witnesses in the Springville and Maple-ton water suit.

Judge Saxe of Spanish Fork was over Monday. He is attorney for Mapleton in the water suit with Springville.

The Woman's Republican club met Monday evening in their clubhouse. Instrumental music was given by Miss Mary Lewis, after which Mrs. Emma Simons gave a very able talk on the life of President Garfield. Recitation, Annie K. Smoot, Song, Helen Greenwood. A short address on some of the political issues to be met during the coming campaign was delivered by D. H. Thomas. The eighth precinct served cake and coffee. After an hour spent in social chat the meeting adjourned until March 21st.

A very successful surprise was given Miss Lydia Knudsen at the home of her parents, 333 South First West, Friday evening. About forty friends with baskets laden with dainties and a freer of ice cream decided to take possession of the house, which they did until a late hour, each feeling the evening had been a most enjoyable one. Among the guests were Messrs. and Mesdames James Clov and John Stewart, Misses Ada Wilkins, Ella Sward, Alice Smoot, Sadie and Maud Graham, Florence Jepperson, Maud Wilkins, Edna Gardner, Daisy Davis, Ethel Cooper, Jennie Robinson, Mattie Warner, Sarah Harris, Alberta Singleton, Nellie and ward entertained the aged of their ward Friday. A very enjoyable program was carried out in the forenoon, and at 2 o'clock all sat down to an elaborate banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tilton left Saturday for Astoria, where they will spend a few months.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McGraw came down from Eureka Sunday. The former returned Monday, but Mrs. McGraw will spend a few weeks visiting relatives and friends of this city.

The "Patients' social and ball given at the State mental hospital Thursday evening was a very brilliant affair. An excellent program was carried out by the patients, and certainly reflected credit on the institution. The guests were then taken to the dining-room, where an elaborate banquet was served. The evening was concluded with a grand ball, at which the guests were expected to dance with the patients until 10 o'clock, when they were taken to their rooms, the guests remaining and enjoying the dance until 12 o'clock. Gov. Wells and wife, together with the State board, were present.

The Nineteenth Century club of Provo is invited to Mrs. A. C. Ewing of Salt Lake for an enjoyable afternoon on Friday, the occasion being the reading of a paper on "Jane Austin" in which the writer (Mrs.
Ewing) gave a brief sketch of the author's life and a critical analysis of her novels. The paper was read by Mrs. Rose Searle, and is one of the many good things in the possession of the reciprocity bureau.
Next week Mrs. Edith Macguire will give a talk on "Art."

Hon. Charles DeMolay of Salt Lake was in this city Thursday.

A pleasant and agreeable surprise was given the presidency of the Fourth ward Relief society on Monday evening by the Relief society of the ward. They were informed that they were to be visited by the bishop at the ward house on important business, and were "truly surprised." A delightful time was had by all present, and a sumptuous repast was had in the vestry of the house, at which several toasts were given and responded to. Mrs.
May Bell Davies acting as toastmaster. A short, spicy program was given after the repast consisting of songs, speeches, etc., by different ones present. A poem composed by George Moldrum for the occasion on the "Life of Mrs. Maggie Watson," the president of the society, was read by H. S. Payne, and Mrs. Bennett, who had the matter in charge, presented Mrs. Watson, and Mrs. Della I. Booth and Mary Boydson, her counselors, each with a beautiful autograph album, as a mark of esteem from those present. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Watson, James Boydson, H. S. Payne, Oscar Young, Benjamin Bennett, C. H. Davis,

Jones, George Moldrum, D. P. Thomas, Walter Dixon, David Edwards, members of the Relief society, Mrs. Marilla Daniels of the stake presidency and many others, all wishing the honored guests a long life of usefulness.

On Tuesday evening a delightful surprise was given Mrs. Margaret Watson of the Fourth ward, the occasion being the lady's seventy-second birthday. The jolly crowd went laden with the good things of the earth, and completely surprised the venerable lady. A lap lunch was served, with hot cocoa, and the evening was pleasantly spent in songs, etc., each one present making a short speech, telling of the acquaintance with Mrs. Watson and wishing her many years of life still to come, crowned with blessings to the poor and needy, as the past years of her life had been. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. John E. Booth, Andrew Watson, Oscar Young, J. C. Ferrin, H. S. Payne, Mrs. Mary Boydson, Cornelia Clayton, Nellie Harris, Sarah Baker, Martha Hunter, Mary Gledhill, Emma Ashworth, Avies

Ferron.

A very pleasant surprise party was given Thomas Court of the Third ward Monday evening. About thirty friends were present.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Harding of the Third ward were the recipients of a very enjoyable surprise Thursday evening. The evening was spent in games, songs and recitations.

Perfect in every detail was the informal reception given Wednesday afternoon in celebration of the seventh anniversary of the Utah Sorosis, at the beautiful home of Mrs. M. M. Warner, 54 East Second South.

The club colors, bell-topped and cream, were charmingly carried out in the decorations, as they were also in the dainty and delicious refreshments. Festoons of carnations, smilax and violets in abundant, caught here and there with rosettes of ribbon, brightened by the many-colored candelabra, made the scene one of beauty, while the violets and sweet-scented flowers made the air fragrant with their perfume.
The punch bowl was gracefully presided over by Miss Lena Bachman, while the officers and members of the club acted as reception committee. About 200 guests were entertained, among whom were many club women of Springville. Mrs. E.
A. Wedgwood of Salt Lake, a charter member of the club, was an honored guest.

without seeing the exhibit. See these hats, make your selections before serious inroads are made in the now perfect assortment.

$35.00 WALKER'S SUITS $35.00 FOR WOMEN...

Have you seen the Walker suits at $35? They're the most surprising regular values Salt Lake has ever known. We've scoured the markets "everywhere" to get them together. It's an idea of ours to make them an all season special, and not a feature of a day or week. Here's the point:

A $35.00 Suit of Perfect Model, Best Workmanship, Best Style Ideas, Best Materials, $40.00 to $45.00 values.

We want to make these famous; we want to make it plain that you should come to Walker's for your suit needs; we want you to talk about them. Choosing's not confined to one or one dozen, but to many dozens. Come Monday and all the season and make their acquaintance.

Our Corsets for a Dollar.

The new ones you should read about in W. B., G. D., C. B. and Warner's.
